FEATURED PROJECT

⊕ LOCATION: Norwalk (Silvermine), Connecticut

⊕ CONTRACTOR: Blue Wave Builders

⊕ ARCHITECT: Studio DiBerardino

⊕ DESCRIPTION: A second story addition began the transformation of this 1950's ranch style home into a character filled, Craftsman-type bungalow. A new broad, sheltering roof with large dormers replaced a shallow attic to accommodate two bedrooms and a bathroom and to provide cover to the new entry porch. Classic features such as exposed rafter tails, custom roof brackets, tapered porch columns and copper gutters create the overall "bungalow" feel.

On The Boards

DETAILS:

- Selling your house? Studio DiBerardino can develop design plans and 3D images to illustrate the future potential of your home to assist in the sale. We have also assisted homebuyers with evaluating a potential home by assessing its current condition and by identifying possible expansions and upgrades.
- One of our projects was featured in From House to Home, a home and lifestyle magazine for Brooks Community Newspapers. Visit www.fromhousetohome.com/articles/fresh_take_on_tradition to view the article and photographs of the project.
- Located in Westport, CT, this issue's "On The Boards" project is an expansion and upgrade of a 1960's basic, Colonial style home scheduled to break ground this Fall. A welcoming porch, bay windows and other detailed projections add visual interest to the front facade.
